

FRANK OTTO ZIEGELE (K1910-17)

He was born on 22 June 1900.

After leaving the College he served in the Royal Warwickshire Regiment during WW1.

In 1920 he went to Singapore and became an East India merchant's manager.

During WW2 he was interned by the Japanese, as civilian prisoner-of-war, from February 1942 to August 1945.

He remained in Singapore for the rest of his life. Despite this he generously gave in excess of £60,000 to the College, which was used to build the new Kerrison boarding house, that was completed in 1973.

He died in Singapore in August 1978.

Because of his great generosity to the College his name lives on in Ziegele House and the Ziegele Centre – see pictures of the later below :

We are grateful to Margot Munzel for providing the following family photo. The two little boys in white at the very front are Frank Otto Ziegele and his brother Geoffrey Ziegele (R1910-17). The old man in the middle is their father Augustus Ziegele. The slight man in the back is the father of Charles Roy Denby (formerly Ziegele) (S1923-30). Charles's son is Douglas Roy Denby (S51-57).

Margot Munzel's great-grandmother is the brown-haired little girl with the dark sailor suit

