

PROFESSOR ALLAN C BROWN (S57-62)

He was born on 4 August 1943 and after leaving the College went to Birmingham University to study medicine.

In 1969 he became a member of the Royal College of Obstetricians & Gynaecologists, before returning to Birmingham University in 1971 and then the University of Bristol in 1973. He was awarded a fellowship in Anaesthesiology, in 1975, at the University of Colorado.

He is currently Associate Professor Emeritus, Department of Anaesthesiology and Associate Professor Emeritus, Department of Otolaryngology at the University of Michigan.

His clinical interests are in adult and paediatric surgical anaesthesia, difficult airway, anaesthesia for extra-cranial head and neck surgery, ear, nose and throat anaesthesia, otorhinolaryngology, difficult airway clinic and obstetric anaesthesia.

His research interests are in Hypotensive anaesthesia, computer applications in anaesthesia and surgery, management of difficult airway, upper airway problems and failed tracheal intubations.