Gift Aid relief

The Society has now registered with the Charity Commission a new charitable fund, so that donations will attract Gift Aid relief. We therefore need all donors to redirect their giving to the SOF Charitable Trust (SOFCT), and to complete the Gift Aid Declaration.

See below how to do this.

SOFCT will fund three objectives:

- Capital improvements at the College
- Scholarships and bursaries to enable future and existing pupils to receive the benefit of education at the College, and
- Benevolence for those OFs who have fallen on hard times, an area where our Trustees have been called on twice in 2014.

Existing Standing Order donors:

- 1 Please complete the Gift Aid Declaration opposite, and
- 2 Indicate on the Form any preference as to which of the above three objectives you wish to benefit. If you do not indicate the Trustees will apply your donation at their discretion.
- 3 Your existing standing order will be automatically redirected to SOFCT with effect from 1 January 2015, so you need take no action on that.

New donors:

- a Please complete the Gift Aid Declaration opposite and
- b Indicate on the Form any preference as to which of the above three objectives you wish to benefit. If you do not indicate the Trustees will apply your donation at their discretion.
- c If you wish to donate on a regular basis, please obtain from your bank a standing order form, quoting our bank details as below

Account: SOF Charitable Trust

Address: HSBC, 12 Tavern Street, Ipswich, Suffolk, IP1 3AZ

Account No: 62314576

Sort Code: 40-25-31

- d Send your completed standing order form – or your cheque, if a one-off payment (payable to the SOFCT) – together with the completed Gift Aid Declaration opposite, to the Hon. Treasurer, c/o SOF Coordinator, Framlingham College, Framlingham, Suffolk IP13 9EY

Please do NOT send your standing orders direct to your own bank!
